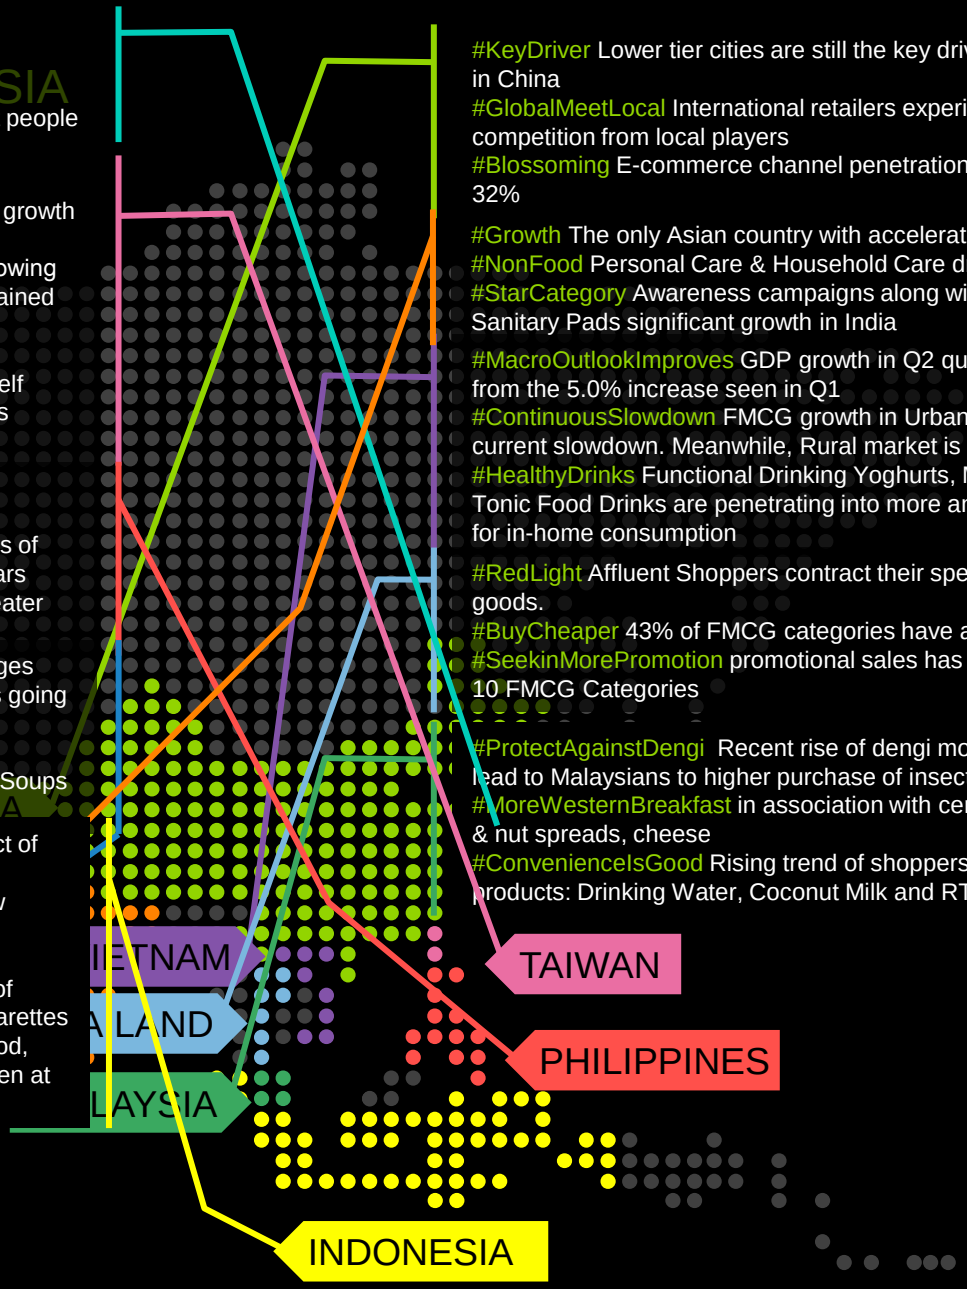
MACROECONOMIC SUMMARY ASIA

#ExternalEffect National tradegy -Sewol ferry accident- affects people´s spend on consumer goods
#MiddleIncome the only segment increasing consumption
#Fast&Convenient& Personal Less time and easy usage attract people

#ShortTermReturn Taiwan's economic indicators are showing promising performance, with FMCG showing a slight short term growth return
#FoodSafety the impact of last year's food safety incidents is slowing wearing off, but performance of instant food categories still remained weak
#FreshImpress Costco remain strong, but PX mart & CVS are declining in importance, possible reasons include decreased shelf space by fresh food expansion and popularity of Takeaway cups respectively.

#BreakfastIsReady More Filipino homes opt to avoid cooking breakfast meals as RTE cereals continue to grow
#ModernTradeGain Sari-sari stores remain the top retail sources of FMCG but have lost 3 sharepoints to modern retail in past 3 years
#BabyCare With the rise of households with toddlers comes greater demand for baby essentials such as, wipes, diapers, and milk
#VolumeContraction FMCG decline in volume is led by Beverages
#AffluentShoppersDown FMCG spends among affluent class is going down over the years, a big drop is seen in average spend per household
#RisingStars Spreads, Condensed Milk, Disinfectants, Labneh, Soups & Bouillon are posting double digit growth

#EconomySlowDown Q2´14 FMCG growth deceleration; impact of overall economy situation and external factors (May and June preparation for Eidul Fitri, school holiday, and preparation of new school enrolment)
#InflationUp Q2 2014 annual inflation rate is 6.8%. The biggest contribution in June inflation is foodstuff, due to price increases of commodities e.g. chicken meat, vegetables, electricity rates, cigarettes
#Convenience and Indulgence trends Canned food, frozen food, RTD tea and soft drink are successful to grow (volume wise), even at the time when price inflation is high



#KeyDriver Lower tier cities are still the key driver for FMCG growth in China

MÉXICO

#PricesGoUp There is an evident increase in prices in Q2, so the ticket grows and frequency falls.

#NearToTheConsumer Proximity channels are growing for most of the baskets.

#SummerPromotionsComeEarly But do not support Supermarkets growth.

CENTRAL AMERICA

#CentralAmericansMoreModerated The basket increases +1%, however Costa Rica and Guatemala didn't manage to recover in the 1st semester of the year.

#ThirstyInCAM Good performance in beverages, specially in water and CSD. Also dairy, impulsed by milk.

#KeyBeingPresentInTraditional Informal channels showing growth, specially in households of SEL ABC+ and D.

#SmartExpenditure For Q2'14 households became more assertive in their expenditures.

#ConsumptionTrends More specialized households, more practical, and more concerned about their health.

#TraditionalTradeReactivates Reactivation of this channel in the states.

BOLIVIA

#PurchaseIntensity Bolivians accelerate consumption vs. 2013, spending more per purchase occasion.

#ModernTrade Channel of revelation in 2014: more trips and more households driving the consumption.

#LookinForPracticality Immediate indulgence and easy-to-cook food are a rising trend in the country.

#QuenchingThirst Due to drought and supply problems to households, increases Water volume sales 33%.

#InformalChannelsGrow Increase purchases in those channel despite high prices caused by commodity shortages.

COLOMBIA

#RiseOfFrequency Positive outlook for FMCG in the 1st semester of 2014, households increased their frequency of purchase.

#CleanKitchen Kitchen towels and Napkins are the categories with higher growth.

#ThirstyCountryBeverages Beverages and Dairy products are the categories with higher consumption growth.

#FeaturedMetropolis São Paulo and Grande Rio consumed more volume without losing frequency. Other regions keep the consumption stable.

#ModernChannel&CashAndCarry Modern Channel consolidates its growth and Cash&Carry contributes more than Traditional.

#BeveragesFall Heavy decrease in the categories of Waters and CSD.

#ConsumptionDrops Q2 at the same level of 2013. The drop focuses mainly inside.

#ValuedCategoriesAffected Dispensable categories lose 12% of volume.

#PrivateLabelsAndLowPriceBrands Are growing. The first decline in 10 years of main brands..

#LessConsumption Households in Peru remain conservative in their consumption.

#PrioritizingLookingGood Households refuse to save in their appearance and personal care basket keeps growing.

#IntenseBuyers Households doing less purchases but more intense.

#HigherTicket Transversely reflected in different socioeconomic levels .

#EfficientPurchases The trend continues towards a higher volume per occasion.

#ContractionInCategories 70% of categories decreased consumption and 38% expenditure. (MAT to June 2014)
